

Charles county, October 24, 1786.

RA N away from the subscriber, a tall slim negro named GEORGE, about 27 years old; his dress a blue coat and breeches, a shirt and hat, all old, his usual walks were at major Jenifer's quarter, and in that neighbourhood, near Port Tobacco, but may make for Baltimore as he once before attempted. Reward for bringing him home fifteen shillings, with an addition of six-pence a mile after the first ten miles.

SAM. HANSON.